- III. The Purchasers to give in their Names and Places of Abode, and to pay down 5s. in the Pound, if required, in Part of Payment of the Purchase-money ; in default of which, the Lot or Lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- IV. The Lots to be taken away, at the Buyer's Expence, immediately after the Conclusion of the Sale ; in default of which, Mr. Leigh Sotheby will not hold himself responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the Purchaser. If, at the expiration of ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the Sale, the Books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expence, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought.
- V. The Books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed ; but if, upon collating, any should prove defective (except Magazines, Reviews, &c.), the Purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are returned within ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the Sale, when the Purchase Money will be returned.

* * * Each Day's Sale will commence precisely at One o'Clock.

Gentlemen who cannot attend the Sale may have their Commissions faithfully executed by their humble Servant,

LEIGH SOTHEBY,
Wellington Street, Strand.

Mr. LEIGH SOTHEBY respectfully informs the Nobility, Gentry, and the Public in general, that in continuing the business, formerly carried on under the old Firm of LEIGH & SOTHEBY, now established nearly a century, for the Sale of Libraries, Collections of Prints, Pictures, Drawings, Coins and Medals, Antiquities, and every description of Property connected with Literature and the Fine Arts, he feels it necessary to state, that, supported by numerous and most respectable friends, he is enabled to give undeniable references to all persons who may honor him with their commands. To his former experience in business, which he may truly say has been considerable, he brings fresh energies and increased means; with the promise of future patronage, based upon a long knowledge of his assiduity and integrity.

The system pursued by the late Firm, of giving and taking credit, will no longer be acted upon by Mr. Leigh Sotheby. His term to Purchasers are, ready money on delivery, for all property bought at his Rooms—and to Sellers, cash, within fourteen days after the termination of each Sale. But should specialities arise to render credit advantageous in the sale of such property, Mr. Leigh Sotheby will consider it his duty to depart from his general rule; subject, however, to the consent of the Proprietors.

All applications will be instantly attended to, and due care exercised in removing, cataloguing, and bringing before the public, property intended for sale. Collectors, by favoring Mr. Leigh Sotheby with their names and addresses, will have catalogues regularly forwarded to them by post; a plan which past experience has proved to be eminently successful, in drawing attention and securing good prices—indeed, the prices obtained at Mr. Sotheby's Rooms have never been exceeded, and very rarely equalled, by any of his professional competitors.

Small parcels of Books, Prints, and other Works of Art, are brought forward without delay in occasional Sales, and receive as much attention as extensive collections.

Mr. Leigh Sotheby has to announce that he arranges and catalogues Private Libraries, &c. &c.; and, also, that he makes valuations for the Legacy Duty; and that in the event of his being employed to sell such collections, the previous charge for valuation will be allowed in the Sale.

*No. 3, Wellington Street, Strand,
February 9, 1837.*
